

They're Happy

Byron Stone

D A D G D G D

1. They're hap - py. You can tell it by the twink - le in his eye,
 2. They're hap - py their — lives crossed at this time, and in this place.

A G D A D A G

6 — The con - tent - ed way her head, she'll lay on his should - er. They're — Cen - tur - ies and seas have stood be - tween man - y oth - ers. If

D G D G D A D A D G

11 hap - py, — and it's not a con - cern of yours or mine, that she's so young, and
 Solo - mon, — on his throne, had met Mar - i - lyn Mon - roe, a thou - sand beaut - ies

D G A D A D G Em(opt.) A G

16 he is so much old - er. They have - n't let the tides of time de - could have wed an - oth - er. It's not as though she has - n't known the

D Bm(opt.) D G D G D Bm(opt.)

21 ny them all they saw there, when des - tin - y left an o - pen young ones. She has been there, — done that, and now she's mov - in'

A G D G D A

26 door. They'll ex - plain the at - trac - tion, if y' real - ly need t' know:
 on. She's his pur - pose, his treas - ure; He's the wind where - in she soars.

G D A D G D A A7 D

31 He's nev - er been this old be - fore, and she'll nev - er be this young an - y more.
 He's nev - er been this old be - fore, and she'll nev - er be this young an - y more.