

DBDB

FREEDOM'S CALL

Dale B. DeBlock

Solo

Piano

Solo

Pno.

Solo

Pno.

Solo

Pno.

♩ = 90

5 There are those to whom we owe our free - dom;

9 There are those who paid the price for peace. There are

14 those who said "I'll go where du - ty calls me, Pledge my

18

Solo

18

Pno.

life in the strife. im-posed by free - dom's foes". Nights a -

22

Solo

22

Pno.

lone. so far from home, with ter - ror 'round them; Bod - ies

26

Solo

26

Pno.

maimed, while oth - ers gained a grave un - known. Shat - tered

30

Solo

30

Pno.

lives: moth - ers, wives and sons and daugh - ters nev - er

34

Solo

more to know the love that beat so strong in him. Bound-less

Pno.

38

Solo

blood, tears and cour-age have brought us to this day, and

Pno.

44

Solo

now, that our daugh-ters and sons may in-her-it and cher-ish the

Pno.

50

Solo

poco rit.

her - - - i - - - tage that is ours, We

Pno.

56

Solo

can - not turn from the call to de - fend what's been so pre - cious to

Pno.

62

Solo

all men, and by God's grace we'll not fall in the face

Pno.

68

Solo

of the chal - lenge that's ours. a tempo There are

Pno.

72

Solo

those to whom we owe our free - doms: Speech, and

Pno.

76

Solo

Press, and to ex - press our pray'r and praise. Through the Pno.

80

Solo

a - ges, his - t'ry's pag - es will de - clare to all, if free - dom

Pno.

84

Solo

died, or

Pno.

Grandioso

86

Solo

lived to - day!

Pno.